

6516206101.txt

Commissioners:

As a former broadcaster I can attest the consolidation of locally owned broadcast stations has not served local communities well.

Competition from XM or any other satellite broadcaster might help in getting these large, corporate owners to pay attention to local communities once again.

Please do not do anything that might eliminate competition from the nation's airwaves.

Thank you.